ESPECIALLY REWARDING PROJECTS

- Produced a large, high-energy annual event that included remote presenters, interactive elements, and special surprises, while masterfully handling the event's notoriously frequent last-minute adds, changes, and requests... and was asked to return year after year.
- Successfully supported the first run of a national sporting event, navigating numerous logistic and environmental challenges.
- Was requested annually to serve as the host/emcee for a conference's daily game show team building event.
- Provided support around the world for a global firm's high-level executives, managing large amounts of media with an overnight turnaround and delivery.
- Produced, shot and edited the launch of a video channel for a wildlife rescue organization.

HAPPINESS OUTSIDE OF WORK

- Photographing people, pets, nature and all things amazing
- Cartooning and drawing silly things for charity or social media
- Learning about new technology, new software, and various solutions that make life easier
- Movie night and popcorn with family
