

DESTIN WINTZ

Producer

Destin Wintz is a dynamic event and media producer whose journey began at the Savannah College of Art and Design, where she pursued studies in Film and Television. Immersed in this creative environment, Destin developed a profound passion for the arts and gained invaluable insights into the transformative power of creativity. Thriving in fast-paced settings, Destin excels in delivering top-notch results while ensuring her clients' experiences are streamlined and stress-free. Known for her efficient approach without compromising quality, she has a natural talent for optimizing processes and exceeding expectations.

With a rich background in executing diverse events and media campaigns across various industries, Destin is recognized for her ability to craft engaging and impactful experiences. She is committed to leveraging her expertise to help clients actualize their vision and reach their objectives through unforgettable events and compelling media initiatives.

ESPECIALLY REWARDING PROJECTS

- During the COVID shutdown, Destin led a team who produced 80 pre-recorded breakout sessions, adapting swiftly to ensure smooth execution despite the challenges.
- In 2022, she executive produced an internal Kick Off broadcast for a technology company, coordinating speakers across three continents and orchestrating custom sets in three studios for a truly global event.
- In 2022, Destin executive produced a live event featuring dynamic content across LED and Projection. The highly-produced one-hour keynote had over 60 meticulously timed video cues for an unforgettable experience.
- She spearheaded the production and design of fresh marketing collateral for a large corporate training facility, which encompassed a revamped website, a multi-platform social media campaign, and a suite of user-friendly sales templates to enhance outreach and engagement.

HAPPINESS OUTSIDE OF WORK

- Wrangling two wild & wonderful boys
- Raising chickens and discovering the joys of tending to them
- Traveling to new places and experiencing different cultures and landscapes
- Searching for the best donut in Michigan!