

JOSH MASSEY

Designer/Photographer

Josh is a seasoned graphic designer and photographer with over 10 years of experience. With an exceptional blend of creativity and professionalism, he is driven by his passion for people, visual storytelling and a keen eye for detail to execute projects of all sizes. Josh's skill set has taken him to 5 different countries and dozens of cities around the U.S., creating digital content for both large and local clients. He effectively communicated the brand identities and messages of each unique business. Through his unique blend of design expertise and photography, he has created compelling content that resonates with the event's target market, leaving a lasting impact on clients and viewers alike.

ESPECIALLY REWARDING PROJECTS

- Photographed an interior design spread for Architecture Digest
- Worked on a photo shoot for Famous Footwear
- Filmed/Photographed/Designed in India for one of the world's leading church planting organizations
- Traveled to support numerous corporate events around the world

HAPPINESS OUTSIDE OF WORK

- Playing video games with his 3 sons at home
- Trips to the beach with his wife, Kayla, their 3 boys and Cuppies
- Recording and releasing music out of his in-home studio
- Cigars and whiskey with his closest buddies